

Community Engagement Worker - Tonbridge

This is a new and exciting opportunity to join and work with community stakeholders in Trench Ward and the wider TN10 North Tonbridge neighbourhoods.

The successful candidate will work on community-wide initiatives providing personalised support to individuals and families to live more independently through improved confidence, gaining new skills, accessing relevant support and empowerment to make positive health and lifestyle choices.

We are looking for someone who is motivated to make a difference and address inequalities. Someone who is flexible, creative and organised, has highly developed communication skills and importantly, experience of supporting adults and families.

This new post is jointly funded by Tonbridge Baptist Church, Tonbridge & Malling Borough Council and Clarion Futures, who all share the same vision and values to make a positive and lasting impact on this community.
